Supreme Court Justice William O. Douglas has written, "If there is to be intelligence in commerce must be the widest possible discussion of it and dissemination of our function."

Have You Ever Wondered

Where all those crazy people on the bus come from? What happened to all those obnoxious performance artists no longer funded by the NEA? Whom it would benefit if more and more people became too frightened to use the public transportation system?

Think ye on these things, and then look for ROCK CON SENOR LUMPO GRANDE in the next issue of POWER TO THE PEOPLE MOVER

Three conceptual bus fantasies:

1. Power to the Peoplesmover's annual awards banquet. Awards would be given out to regular riders in categories such as "Best Haircut", "Best Loud Conversation with one's self", and "Best Conversation with one's self".
2. Bus fashion shows. A ghetto blaster some models and the center aisle are the three elements needed to showcase the newly hip public transportation grunge look.
3. Bus Karaoke. Your favorite driver-your favorite music.
